With Love, we dedicate this 1980 AYANTEE to
our "AGGIE PARENTS"

Our beloved resplendent flame the very essence of our vitality watched over us and kept us warm through those desolate infant nights during our states of quandary and times of indecision its intensity would seem to dampen through our mind distorted visions our flame burned on and on that luminous love shone bright never to relinquish its light emitting form through which we suffice through trials and tribulations and times of great despair we could rest assured the flame would still be there warned us of the destined climb of the high and rocky mountain, on our journey to success guarded by the threatening clouds destroying your foundation if you dare to take a rest taming the waves in a turbulent sea by teaching us diplomacy as the major test that flame instilled deep within us a perpetual need and aspiration for success providing us the means to see, in the most obscure paths which often lead us astray filled our minds with knowledge for this real world today.
you're our fountain of adoration our joy and our pride
our most revered treasure for our entire life
we sincerely appreciate your supreme sacrifice parent ... guardian flame for a true and meaningful life

THE WIZ

In the midst of Homecoming Activities the Aggie Family witnessed the transformation of what was formerly a Basketball Court, into the fantasy world of the land of Oz ... or AggieLand! While in the Land of Oz we found ourselves easing on down the road to a wonderful and memorable evening with the lovely Queens and their handsome Escorts.

Rosa Parks

How familiar are you with Rosa Parks? We have all heard of the times of this great lady but few can associate her name with the famous situation.

During the commemoration of Black History Month, Rosa Parks spoke to an attentive crowd of her internationally famed situation.

In 1955, Rosa Parks was arrested for refusing to give her bus seat to a white man. "The man did not request or demand a seat," said Ms. Parks. "It was the white bus driver who insisted that I give up my seat. When I refused, I was removed from the bus by the police. After this was done, the police asked the white man if he wanted to sign a warrant against me or drop the matter. A warrant was signed and I was arrested." Soon after this occurred, there were boycotts which led to causing the bus company to discontinue services.

Ms. Parks, a native of Tuskegee, Alabama, and a graduate of Alabama State Teacher's College said that, when she is asked to speak on her experience, it is still very painful and exhausting. She added, however, that if she had to do again what she did during the civil rights struggle, she would.

Ms. Parks told the listeners that she requests today's young people to "become concerned, aware and dedicated to the quest for freedom, equality and peace for all mankind."

DREAM VARIATIONS

To fling my arms wide
In some place of the sun,
To whirl and to dance
 Till the white day is done.
Then rest at cool evening
 Beneath a tall tree
While night comes on gently,
 Dark like me ...
That is my dream!

To fling my arms wide
 In the face of the sun Dance! Whirl! Whirl!
 Till the quick day is done.
Rest at pale evening ...
A tall slim tree ...
Night coming tenderly Black like Me!

The Cafeteria is where we gather three times daily to dine and socialize. The staff works hard to prepare our food and many students work hard to entertain us. It is one of the leading social academics on campus. Although some of us complain about the food we never hesitate to be there — on time. There's no place like the cafe when you are bored or "got the munchies".

Happenings In And Around The Classroom ...

RESEARCH PROJECTS: One of Many On Campus

Dr. James Williams, a professor in the Biology Department heads a research project entitled "Chronology of Protein Differentiation in the Chick with Special Emphasis on Hemoglobin Molecules." There are two graduate students working with him: Kevin Brown and Nabil Ashkar.

Initial studies have shown that a large variety of organisms can, and normally do, synthesize more than one species of hemoglobin. These investigators are attempting to accumulate information relative to these hemoglobins, types of polypeptide chains synthesized eventually leading to investigations of control mechanisms.

Because the emergence of new proteins is thought to be a rather direct expression of gene activity, the elucidation of the control mechanism in hemoglobin biosynthesis could serve as a model leading to a greater understanding of such phenomena as cellular differentiation, and the appearance of certain pathologic states as the continued existence of fetal hemoglobin in the adult, the various forms of thalassemia, and the sickle cell anemia syndrome.

There is a lot of data to be gathered and interpreted, the results will be gratefully accepted by the real world.

JUST CALL HER ... "MOMA DIAZ"

Being known as "MAMA" by so many is a status that is not to be taken lightly. Dr. Maria R. Diaz has been called "Mama Diaz" for practically the entire 18 years that she has been a professor at A & T. During that time, among her many students' extra-curriculum activities we can mention; the initiation of The Society Of Physics Students (SPS) and The Society Of Women Engineers (SWE), the promotion and publication of the SPS newsletter, and many speakers, recruiters, films presentation, picnics, lunches and dinners for the students. For five consecutive years she guided the SPS in a state wide contest sponsored by industries and/or The American Institute Of Physics.

In response to the question of how she felt about it — Dr. Diaz flashed a warm smile as she began to reminisce "When I got here I told my students that since I was concerned about their future in some degree comparable to that of their parents and that they were spending more time at A & T with me than with their mothers, I could be their school mother. Today I feel very proud of my two children at home and of my thousands of students here at A & T."

We honestly feel she doesn't mind being called MAMA — in fact we think she likes it.

Instructor Very Concerned About Teaching

Mr. John Morris, an instructor in the Industrial Technology department is very concerned about teaching. He feels that it is the best avenue to help students who are seeking information bid from the textbook or about everyday aspects of existing in the world of work and day to day contact with ones fellow-man.

As a phenomena, many of his prior students claim while in his classes that he was a difficult person to satisfy in terms of attitude, classroom work, and their use of tact. However, after they have been out in the real world they thank him for his forcefulness.

He believes a student needs in addition to book learning, to develop a sense of confidence, a tactful or diplomatic method for communicating with people, a good attitude, and by all means to be honest. This instructor tries to practice a philosophy or concept of being fair, firm, and friendly. He believes in giving a student a chance to develop by allowing the student to make mistakes. Mr. Morris never gives answers for problems immediately, students must choose facts first. He keeps his class going by humorous sayings, and tid bits, of side information. Some students call him daddy in a sense of respect.

Through proposals to industries he has secured enough funds to purchase 23 mini computers that students use in the classroom as an aid in problem solving.

He is in the process of writing several hundred industries who are not presently involved in our Co-op program, to join us in expanding the program by supplying more Co-op job opportunities for Industrial Technology majors and others.

Dr. Ward Collis and a graduate student checks data on a research project.

HOMECOMING

PARADE ... Steppin' Into The Real World

Despite the rather chilly climate and light rain sprinkle, the crowd waited anxiously for the annual Homecoming Parade. Children shuffled their feet as they grew impatient, but as soon as they saw it coming their eyes filled with excitement. The Parade consist of drill teams, bands, community and University Organizational Representation and lots of pretty girls.

1. Ina Goocharan, Miss International smiles as she waves at the crowd.
2. The Dudley High School Band "Get Off."
3. Karen White, flashes a million dollar smile.
4. Community Drill Team, an added attraction.

2. Umm ... a little flirting on the sideline.

4. Pretty lil' Miss ... bound for Aggietland.
5. Despite the rain, Valerie Capehart smiles brilliantly at the crowd.

The A & T Homecoming parade is one of the annual classic events which takes place the morning before the homecoming game. In the following pictures you get a view of the spectators as viewed by one of the photographers of the yearbook staff participating in the parade. The parade consists of many organizations throughout the Greensboro area, Campus Organizations, Drill Teams, and Bands.

1. The little lady takes a seat on the top deck to get an unobstructed view of the parade.
2. "... It coulda been me ... shoulda been me riding on that float."
3. Not even the rain can stop these spectators as each of them focus their attention along different sections of the parade.

ARE YOU READY FOR THE REAL WORLD

Courage: Stepping Into The Real World, the 1979-80 Homecoming theme is one that every student on campus should be able to identify with.

Webster defines courage as "the quality of being fearless or brave; valor; pluck." Although many students may have some fears about eventually being a part of society, entering into the world of work, one must realize that everything must change. The timid, naive student that entered A & T one, two, three, or four years ago, can not enter into a new environment with such characteristics. During the time that one enters college and walks across the stage to receive his or her selected degree, attitudes must have been changed.

College is just one of many stages in students' lives. If used effectively, it can prepare students to attain courage and confidence in oneself. If not used effectively, one will not be able to step into the real world. Students will be stepping into a world with many preconceptions that are not real, thus, prolonging their possible contributing to society.

To become an effective competitor, one must know the "means" of doing certain things. Having the ability to communicate, work with people, and understanding their needs will make one a very dominant force in the real world.

A & T is no fantasy island. It is a small portion of what students should expect in taking that "step". If students can not contend with the ways, attitudes, and feelings of their peers, then he or she is not preparing himself/herself to possess that quality which will enable him/her to be brave and confident business persons displaying that Aggie pride that reveals to others — "Yes, A & T has properly and effectively prepared me to be a vital force in the real world."

"GATOR SLIM"

Larry Pauling got his nickname in Jr. High School when he wore a pair of Alligator shoes. Some people call him Gator the relator because of his ability to relate with others.

Gator is a person who is very conservative, modest, and who cares about people. He is a Mechanical Engineering Major and holds an Air Force R.O.T.C. Scholarship. He has also been on the Dean's List for three semesters. Gator enjoys photography and is a photographer for the A&T Register.

Gator also engages in social activities around campus, but lives a cognito life style. He tries to maintain the proper balance between his Educational and Social aspects of life, believing that they both go hand in hand.

As far as his future plans, he is persuing a career in the Air Force as an engineer to obtain managerial experience which will help him to reach his ultimate goal of opening his own consulting firm.

... And then there was J. V.

"Why me?" was what James M. Vincent Jr.'s expression was when he was told that the Ayantee wanted to do a feature story on him.

James is a 20 year old Electrical Engineer Junior from Reidsville, NC. He graduated from Reidsville Senior High. He is very active in the junior class. He is Vice Basileus of the Mu Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, member of the Social Affairs of SUAB, Parliamentarian of the Pan Hellenic, Senior Advisor for Alpha Lambda Delta, IEEE member, member of the EE 3.8 Club, Alpha Kappa Mu, Alpha Chi, Presidential Scholar and member of the First Baptist Church.

When asked who he admired the most and why, his reply was his father James tells us his father exemplifies all the qualities he admires in a person. We have his father to thank for inspiring him to be what he is now. What he is now is a very outstanding person. James has a pleasing personality, he's sociable, likes contact sports (ummm...), likes playing backgammon and loves to jam!

After finishing school, he says, "I want to obtain a MBA or become a successful electrical engineer." In the meantime, A & T can look forward to seeing James Vincent for another year.

We've come a long way thus far but yet we must go much further. Perceiving the universe as inherent in our own nature, it is necessary that we learn from our experiences and develop ourselves to the utmost of our ability. When we have reached this state of self actualization we can then walk with our heads up high having a keen sense of pride and dignity establishing rapport with whomever we may confront. But for the present we must stay deep in our studies and take another step forward towards that day when we will receive our degree and go out to make our empressions as we begin stepping into the real world.

"Sugar & Spice"

A&T has always been known for its fine quality of women and Annette Baker (l) and Pandora Robinson (r.) are no exceptions.

Ms. Baker, a Mass Communication Major, is a native of Hassel, N. C. She enjoys traveling, sports, sewing, bowling and growing plants. She is a member of the O.B.S. (Organization for Broadcasting Students) and NAACP. Her plans after graduation are to receive her masters and to become the next black woman in a position comparable to Walter Cronkite's. Her motto is "Be yourself but be unique."

Ms. Robinson is a Business Administration Major from Durham, N. C. She enjoys listening to jazz, partying, and bowling. A member of the Business Administration Club, Ms. Robinson says, "I am very interested in the marketing world that's why I chose BA as my major."

Both young ladies enjoy meeting people and making new friends. They plan to be successful in their respective fields and we wish them luck!

"THE CONSPICUOUS DUO"

James Bridget and Robert Muldrow III are two of the most eccentric people on A&T's campus. But, their ideas on school contradicts their appearance.

James sees people coming to college trying to change from a haphazard high school student to a supercool college student. He tries to make people feel relaxed and at home on campus. He knows college isn't as bad as it sometimes seems. He says, "College hasn't really changed me because A&T is not here just to change, but to improve those who attend." James is a Transportation Major from Columbia, S. C.

To keep out of boredom, Robert makes a hobby of trying to keep A&T's campus alive. A born leader, Robert does crazy things to keep up school spirit. On the serious side, he attends SGA Meetings—often asking questions about campus concerns. To him, college is where you really mature—beyond the changes of Jr. High and High School. Hailing from Washington, D.C., Robert plans to enter the Business world showing what he has learned as a B.A. Major.

Hit It Maestro

Tim Bratton, a Music major with the concentration in piano, works his fingers to the bone playing for both the Gospel and University Choir here at A & T. At home (Indianapolis), Tim is the organist of a 90-voice choir at First Baptist Church. We always hear the expression "Practice makes perfect." Well when Tim isn't practicing to be perfect, he's either swimming or skating. So my fellow Music major, we better shape up or ship out.

James Thomas, a football player is sitting in the Student Union Ballroom playing one of his many foot-stomping tunes. Who would think a football player would be playing the piano? Well James does, and his speciality is gospel, with a little bit of classic played every now and then. This talented young man also sings baritone with the greatest ease. Now, can any of you fellow football players top that?

Wright is Right

Brenda Wright is a native of Enfield, NC and has chosen Nursing as her major. She enjoys the opportunity to help other people. She also feels that her major would make her life more meaningful.

When asked why she chose A & T as her college choice, she replies, "A & T has a good history reputation and so far the beginning of this year has been quite interesting."

Presently, she is not a member of any campus organization but plans to be a member of next year's Yearbook Staff.

Her future plans consist of becoming a registered Nurse and raising a small family.

Portia Cotton, a Psychology major likes to play softball, volleyball, handball, bowling, skating, backgammon, checkers, and chess. She also collects old records and sews. Portia doesn't watch soap operas, she has better things to do. She, like the rest of us, sometimes does things a little out of the ordinary. What does Portia do? Well she eats pizza with catsup on it, and colors in coloring books. Portia's major might help her more than others.

The Real World

Miss A & T

How do I love thee?
Let me count the ways
I love thee to the depth, and breath, and height
My soul can reach
When feeling out of sight
For the ends of being and ideal grace
I love you with the breath, smiles, tears
Of all my life, and if God choose
I shall but love thee better after death

Elizabeth Barrett Browning

To Dr. Doudy, other administrators, faculty, staff, fellow Aggies, and my dear friends. Those few lines sum up my feelings to you. For you have given me the greatest honor for which I could ever dream—that of being Miss A & T as well as your official female representative for our Dear Alma Mater.

As your queen, I have been fully aware of your expectations which among other things included charm, sincerity, scholarship, ability, intelligence, and the spirit of friendliness. I tried to exemplify these qualities at all times—not only from Dura to Cherokee but wherever I would find myself.

I pay tribute to you dear Aggie family for without you this would not have been possible. You have provided me with the incentive and most of all with the courage to pursue my highest potential—that of letting the world know that I have lived and that I have helped others to live abundantly also... for that is my goal.

Again, may I say to you my fellow Aggies, thanks loads for your confidence, your love, and your inspiration for all of these I do embrace you warmly.

Love,
Joyce

AGGIES IN ACTION

Freshman Keith James kicks off the season with the right foot against Winston-Salem State. Head Coach McKinley and Assistant Coach Ed Hiatt prepare strategy for the Aggies on the sideline. Injuries kept the Aggies back this season and Charlie Sutton, second left at the top, shows his reaction of an injured player. Action is shown by the offensive line from Coach Darwin Valentin. Linebacker Charles Hester makes a classic tackle against Tennessee State.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Dear Fellow Aggies:

The Student Government Association administration undertook a very difficult task this year. We sought to increase the level of consciousness of the student body as a whole. Through increasing the level of consciousness we hoped that you would gain a better understanding of what is actually going on around you. We also hoped to further develop your analytical skills.

Along with developing a sense of consciousness, it is also important that we develop a sincere sense of commitment. We contend that the civil rights movement would not have been a success without commitment. It was best portrayed by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in Memphis, Tennessee, April 3, 1968 when he said:

"And then I got into Memphis. And some began to say the threats- or talk about the threats that were out. Or what would happen to me from some of our sick white brothers."

"Well, I don't know what will happen now. We've got some difficult days ahead. But it really doesn't matter with me now. Because I've been to the mountain top. I won't mind."

"Like anybody, I would like to live a long life. Longevity has its place. But I'm not concerned about that now. I just want to do God's will. And He's allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I've looked over, and I've seen the promised land."

"I may not get there with you, but I want you to know tonight that we as a people will get to the promised land. So I'm happy tonight. I'm not worried about anything. I'm not fearing any man. Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord."

"Complete Awareness for Complete Commitment"

The objective of the A&T Register is the reporting of news, completely committed to keeping the University informed on topics that will make it more aware of its surroundings. The A&T Register, is a valid segment of the media and has constantly been recognized as a "First Class" newspaper, according to the National Critical Service of the Associated Press for College Newspapers.

Published twice weekly, the staff tries to focus on national and community news, as well as campus news, realizing that students must not limit their knowledge to just the happenings on this campus.

The school year the A&T Register began what was believed to better allow more exposure to campus organizations, while at the same time, compensating, to a certain degree, for the lack of communication on the campus.

Working under the advisorship of Mrs. Loreno M. Marrow, the A&T Register will continue to strive for excellence in the news publication area.

Don't Ask Who Cut Our Throats

Way up on a hill
From an oak they named the tree,
Hangs a nigger mighty high Cause Lincoln set us free!

The crime he just committed
Was having a strong hope,
That come election time
He would cast a little vote!

Well if I should say more About our dead forgotten friend
His—You call those silly dreams
Put his life to end.

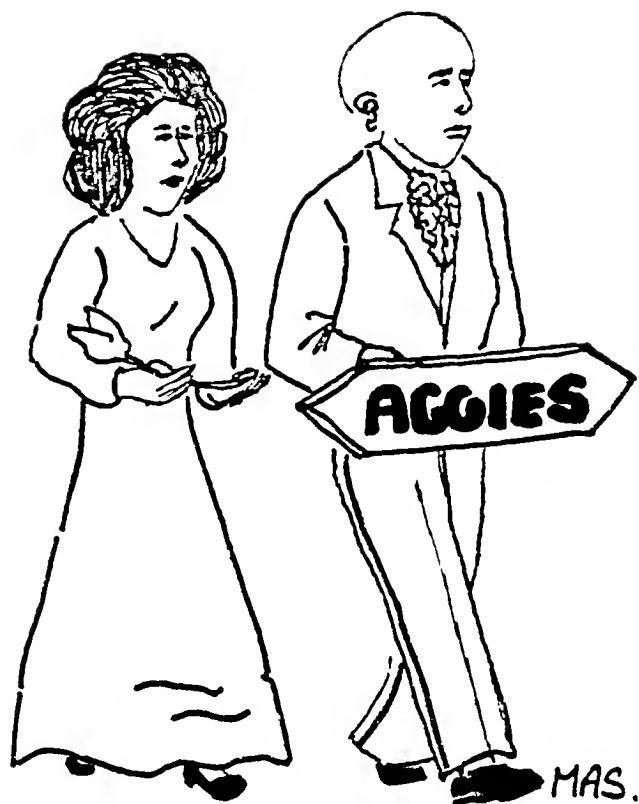

But while his dreams were silly
Some tongues began to stand,
All Civil Rights they screamed—
Surely making our demands!

We got our childred into
That half way open door,
Because the niggers stood as one in 1964!

But now that we're just Blacks
And see no need to vote,
Well, if tomorrow comes out wrong
Don't ask who cut our throats!

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was organized Friday evening, November 17, 1911, in the office of Ernest E. Just, Professor of Biology, Howard University. The organizers were three students in the College of Liberal Arts, Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper and Frank Coleman.

The Fraternity was to be composed of men of like attainment and of the same ideals of Fellowship, Scholarship, and Manhood.

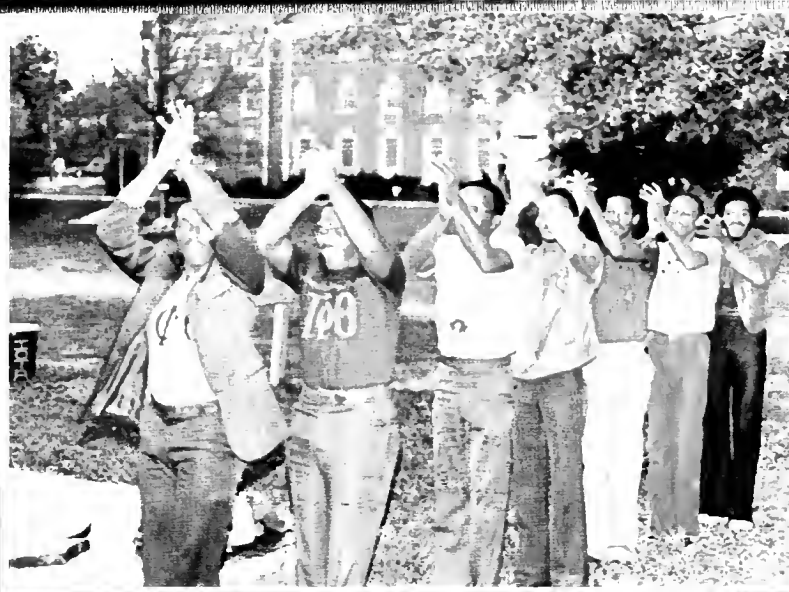

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity is now nationwide with a number of undergraduate and graduate chapters.

KAPPA ALPHA PSI FRATERNITY INC.

Many are called but few are chosen.

Kappa Alpha Psi was the first Black Greek-lettered organization to be founded on the campus of Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana on January 5, 1911. It was on that date that ten great founding fathers set into a bond of fraternity our fundamental purpose — Achievement in every field of human endeavor. Kappa Alpha Psi is a mutually-selective brotherhood of gentlemen, with quality rather than quantity in mind; therefore, only those men duly qualified academically and morally are permitted membership. The Alpha Nu Chapter, founded April 14, 1933 here at A & T, has been a leader in this quest through their many leadership roles on campus and in the community.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA FRATERNITY INC.

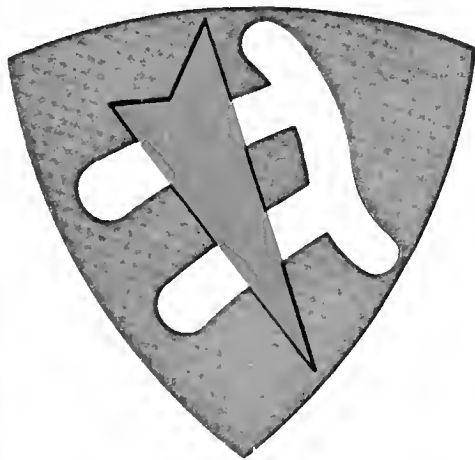

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., the first intercollegiate Greek letter fraternity established for black college students, was organized at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, in 1906. The first unit of this national fraternity, organized by college men of Afro-American descent, was called Alpha Chapter. The fraternity was born out of the desire for maintaining close association and unified support for members of this small minority group, inasmuch as they were denied, for the most part, the mutual helpfulness which the majority of students attending their university regularly enjoyed. The seven, visionary founders at Kelly, Nathaniel Murray, Robert Ogle, and Vertner Tandy, labored in the years of severe economic struggle and racial conflict in the United States. Despite their difficulties of organization in this untried field of student life, the early fraternity pioneers succeeded in laying a firm foundation and remained steadfast in their goals pointing toward development of the fraternity's membership — that is the espousing of the principles of good character, sound scholarship, Christian fellowship and the uplifting of humanity, especially the struggling black minority in the United States. Beta Epsilon Chapter, the local satellite of Alpha, continues to keep Alpha Phi Alpha FIRST OF ALL BLACK GREEKS!

THE ORIGIN AND GROWTH OF PHI BETA SIGMA FRATERNITY, INCORPORATED

On Saturday, October 8, 1913, A. Langston Taylor presented the proposition of establishing a new fraternity at Howard University, Washington, D. C., to Leonard F. Morse. Charles I. Brown, another student at Howard University, was invited to aid in the movement.

Conferences leading to the actual organization were subsequently held; and on January 9, 1914, the permanent organization of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity was effected.

The founders chose nine of their associates at Howard University as members. These men were S. P. Massie, J. A. Franklin, J. E. Jones, B. A. Mathews, W. F. Vincent, T. L. Austin, W. E. Tribbs, J. H. Howard, and I. L. Scruggs, who later became Charter Members. A. L. Taylor was elected President; Charles I. Brown, Vice-President; and Leonard F. Morse, Secretary-Treasurer.

These men chose the name PHI BETA SIGMA for the new organization, and the Mother Chapter, Alpha Chapter, was established.

Who's Who Among American Colleges And Universities

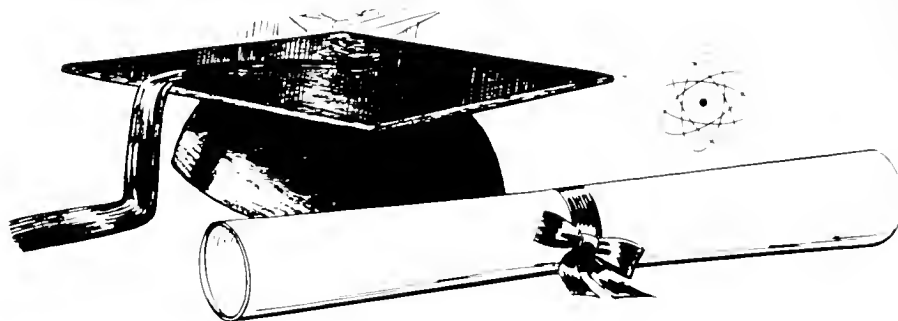

"You are living in one of the rarest moments in history — a time when all around us the old order of things is crumbling and a new world society is painfully struggling to take shape."

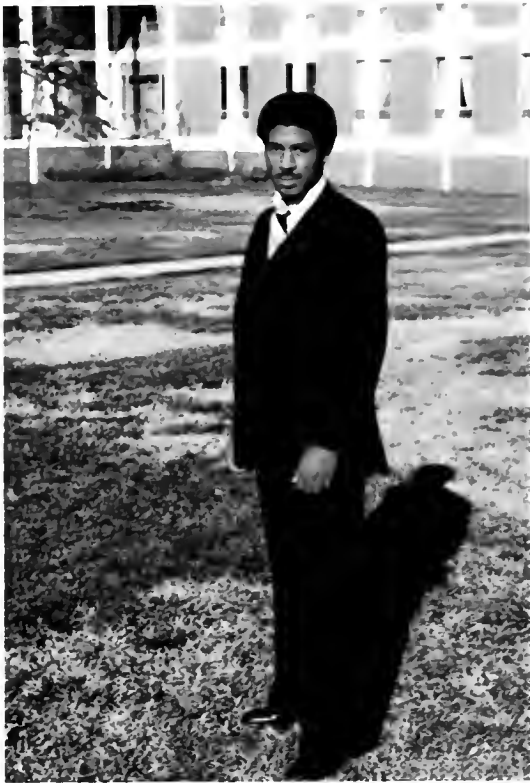

"If you shrink from this struggle and the many difficulties, you will betray the trust which your own position forces upon you. You live in the most privileged nation on earth. You are the most privileged citizens of that privileged nation; for you have been given the opportunity to lead ..."

"You can use your enormous influence and opportunity to seek purely private pleasure and gain. But history will judge you, and as the years pass, you will ultimately judge yourself, in the extent to which you have used your gifts and talents to lighten and enrich the lives of your fellow man."

"In your hands lies the future of your world and the fulfillment of the best qualities of your own spirit."

The Struggle Never Ends

This year A & T is honoring four men whose names will well be remembered for their outstanding leadership and achievement to the Black society.

The four are Ezell Blair Jr., Franklin McCain, Joseph McNeil and David Richmond. These four North Carolina A & T State University students uncovered a social revolution in 1960 when they insisted to be served at a formerly all white lunch counter at F.W. Woolworth downtown in Greensboro.

The time was taken to invite the four Black students back to A & T for numerous speeches and unveiling ceremonies to reiterate the significance of the 1960 sit-ins that threatened the country in 1960.

Many thought that their effort was a waste of time, but within two months the sit-in demands had swept through 54 cities and 9 heavily segregated southern states. Within one year over 100 different cities had experienced some type of student led demonstration against white only public facilities.

It has been stated that as the four young freshmen walked up to Woolworth sit-in, the four young men walked around and purchased some school supplies, toothpaste and shoe polish.

History was marked when Blair wanted a cup of hot coffee, but he was refused service when a white waiter replied that "We don't serve colored here."

Blair replied "I beg to disagree with you. You just finished serving me at a counter only two feet from here." "Negroes eat on the other end," the waiter answered, as she pointed toward the colored section of the counter which was a stand up session. Blair argued about the store having a total of nine counters which he could receive service from and why he was denied service from the tenth. He demanded to see the manager but she just happened not to be in. The four students remained there at the counter to be served.

When C.L. Harris learned of this incident which was occurring in his store he went directly to the police station which was about three blocks away. Police Chief Paul Calhoun broke the disappointing news to him, that they could not do anything to the young men unless he wanted to file a warrant for trespassing.

City Manager James Townsend reported the incident to Major George Roach. Major Roach had a solution to the problem, which was to integrate the counter, but Harris simultaneously refused.

To coincide with Harris refusal Police Chief Calhoun sent four white officers to make sure no trouble would develop.

When such a racial revolution had been sparked off the four men received abundance of help from neighboring schools.

Andrew Young is overwhelmed with emotion as the choir sings ... "I don't believe he brought me this far, to leave me ..."

A Revitalization of the 1960 Sit-In's

Equanlity Entre Nous
"Evenness of Mind Between Us"

In 1960 my brothers and sisters fought for freedom
They rioted, marched, and the day still hasn't come

When he'll be able to stand and say "My name is King and I am a man"

My people fought for justice and equality
They talked about slavery, and every day reality

My brothers have been diserminated against for a long time
They were fighting for a change in mankind.

My people were slain, shot, and rocked to death
Can you imagine how the young ones felt

To see their mothers and fathers shot down and the white man in his long white gown

Burning crosses and marching around in the street
Just because the black man wants to be free.

Can you hear my brothers screaming with fear.
As the Klansman come near, near, near.

Some having to die to witness in what they believe And all for nothing. Because we haven't yet achieved.

On the top of the opposite page the four original members of the sit-ins of the 1960's. (lower picture) Bro. Andrew Young speaking to an Aggie-congregation. (top left) Kelvin Buncum, as the monument in memory of Bro. Willie Grimes is unveiled. (top right) Rev. Benjamin Chavis gave his sermon to an attentive crowd. (bottom left) Bro. Cleveland Sellars, poured out his soul to a capacity crowd in the Union Ballroom. (bottom right) Cheryl presents an A&T plaque to Dr. Mary Berry.

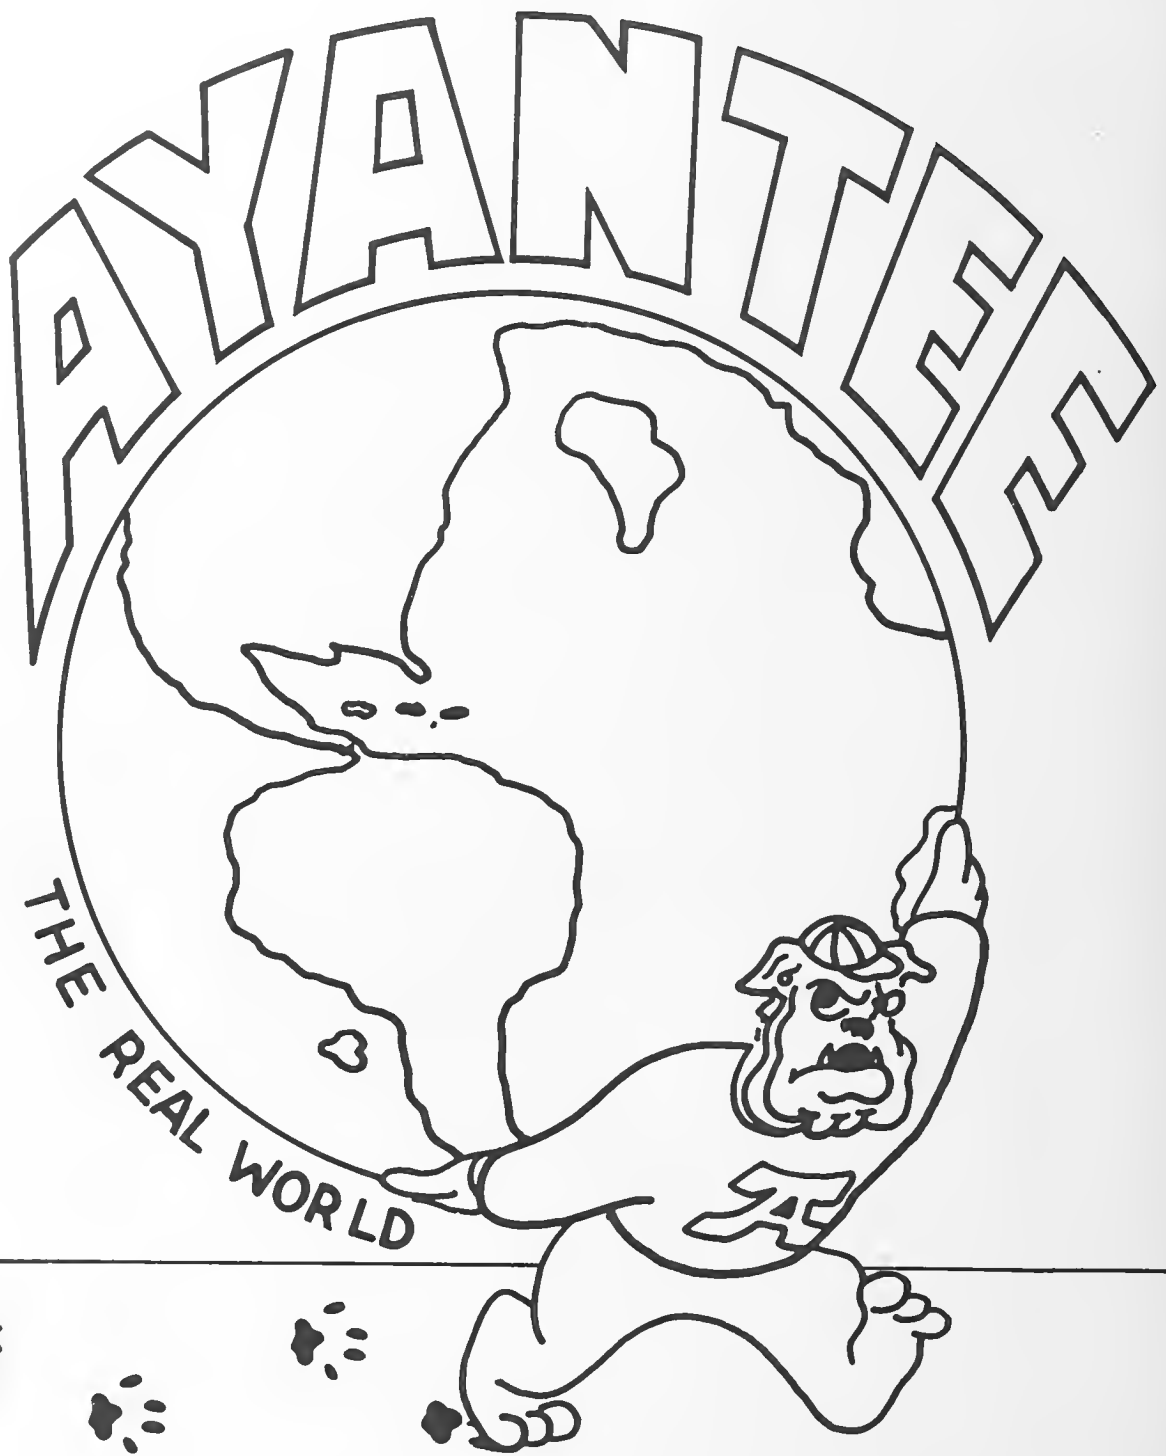

To be an Editor of a yearbook is indeed a task not to be taken lightly by anyone . . . and that thought was exemplified as the Editor of the 1980 Ayantee was named; (somehow guided by the notion that two heads are better than one and much to the surprise and confusion of many) Marcia and Lewis were given the opportunity to combine their talents and produce a number one yearbook. This page is reserved for our two Editors to express themselves:

Every day of our existence is permeated with some type of struggle. We are forced to struggle as we compete for grades, recognition and even a place in this selfish society, trying desperately to "make it" in the real world.

During the past year we've seen many changes on this campus, in the nation and in the world. Here at A & T we are threatened with the possibility of a merge with UNC-G. The mere thought of a merger is a highly controversial issue; there is so much history here and a merger would cause a loss of our true identity as one of the few major Black institutions. On the national scene, the Iran situation and of course the uncopable energy crisis which is a painful experience that we all have felt in one way or the other. Despite the upheaval and the uncertainty of our world we have not abandoned our struggle here on this campus and evidence of these changes are what this book is all about. We have worked hard during this year and we will continue our struggle in the future. On the behalf of our staff, we hope to evoke memories, a sense of pride, joy, laughter and tears as you step confidently into the real world.

A special thanks to our executive board and staff members who stuck beside us during the many hours of hard work which has been reflected on these pages. Last, but certainly not least, heartfelt thanks is extended to our parents, without whose love and support this book would not have been possible.
